

Our New Look in 2018

Many thanks to everyone who donated to the "Barn Fund." You can see for yourself what an inviting entrance the new windows and doors present to our visitors. This was truly a membership-driven project with additional interest from donors all over the country in preserving the look of the main building and the exhibits within.

